

June 2022

At Oshkosh, putting People First is a priority. That is why Safety is an uncompromised value for our team members, contractors and visitors. We set strong safety performance expectations and measure ourselves to ensure accountability and compliance with applicable federal, state and local standards.

Our global Safety Management System is the tool we use to drive continuous improvement through:

- Management commitment and involvement.
- Team member engagement.
- Hazard identification and mitigation.
- Safety management system progression.

John Pfeifer
President and Chief Executive Officer
Oshkosh Corporation